FIERCE STORM DOES DAMAGE.

A fierce wind storm, accompanied by rain and blinding lightning, swept over this and adjoining counties early Sunday morning, leaving ruin and destruction in its path. Loss of property has been reported from a number of points, but, fortunately, there were no fatalities.

At the Forks of Rough, a barn and dwelling belonging to Lefe Cummings were blown off their foundations, and the dwelling of Frank Rhodes and all the outbuildings were unroofed. A special to the News from Hardinsburg states that the storm blew down a hog barn on the farm of Abe McMeador, who lives near that place, and also blew down a lot of fencing and unroofed his frame barn. In this city shingles were blown off the roof and cornices tumbled to the ground but no serious damage is reported.

Dundee and Narrows, two small towns in Ohio county, near the Breckenridge county line, were almost totally destroyed by a tornado. At the former place twelve houses were demolished. At Narrows fourteen houses were blown down, the big store house of Netro Bros., containing a $10,000 stock of goods, was demolished, and four other stores were blown away. The inhabitants of both towns were on the alert when the cyclone came and none were killed.

In pursuance to the council's decision, Ex-Sinking Fund Commissioner C. B. Skillman made a legal transfer of the sinking fund, amounting to $20,000, to J. A. Barry, the newly elected city treasurer. The money is now on deposit at the Breckenridge Bank, as it has been for several years. It will be used towards buying in the L. H. & St. L. shops bonds, as soon as they can be bought at a satisfactory price.

The loss will amount to about $2,000. The insurance in force on the building was $1,000. The fire was first originated between the ceiling of the second story and the roof, the blaze first appearing through the shingles. Every effort was made by the large crowd, which quickly assembled, to control the fire, but without success. Fortunately, there was no wind, and the flames did not spread to any other buildings. Mr. Pate will rebuild in the spring.

VIRGIL WILSON IS MISSING.

Virgil Wilson, a young man formerly of this city and who has relatives in this county, has been missing since December 30. His wife, Mrs. Clara Wilson (nee Miss Clara Moredock) is confident that he was a victim of the fire in Chicago or is ill in some hospital and has not been able to communicate with her. On the day of the fire, December 30, he wrote Mrs. Wilson that he was going to the theater that afternoon and would leave that night for Louisville, their home. Since then nothing has been heard from him and his wife and friends have searched Chicago and other cities, and have even called in the police. Last year Mr. and Mrs. Wilson lived in Chicago, but finding that Chicago did not agree with her health, she returned to Louisville and has been living with her mother, Mrs. Emma J. Moredock. Mrs. Wilson last saw her husband on October 17 and his business, as a traveling agent for the James F. Feltine Company, was such that he was not to return to Louisville until the last of December.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have a number of relatives in this city who, when seen by a representative of the News, were unable to give any information concerning Mr. Wilson's whereabouts than is stated above.

Religious.

Father Edwin Drury, of Knoxville, will hold services at St. Rose's Catholic church next Sunday morning and give a lecture.

Father Bray held early morning services at St. Rose's Sunday and second mass at the Haverhill Catholic church.

Rev. W. A. Lusk, of the Zion Baptist church, preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and Rev. Christian in the evening.

Rev. King filled his regular appointments at the M. E. church, South, Sunday.

FARMERS HOLD MASS MEETING.

Between two and three hundred farmers of Breckenridge county met at the court-house in Hardinsburg Monday to take action to relieve the demoralized tobacco situation. Granville Wilson was elected chairman and Jas. Miller secretary. The chair then appointed the following committee on resolutions: H. Pile, Ken Rhodes and Wm. Lyons.

Judge Mercer suggested that, as the meeting was in the interest of the farmers, he thought speeches from Judge Chelf and other gentlemen in the house giving their views on the subject would be of interest to them, and that a committee be appointed to correspond with other organizations formed for like purposes, and to get in touch with them and their methods. In pursuance of these two resolutions, the following speeches were made by Gen. D. R. Murray, Joe Mullen, Jas. Miller, G. W. Beards, Judge Mercer, W. K. Barnes and Granville Wilson, and the following corresponding committee was appointed: Cyrus Miller, D. R. Murray and Granville Wilson.

The following resolutions were adopted:

We, the farmers and tobacco growers of Breckenridge county, today, in mass meeting assembled, in pursuance of the fact published in the Breckenridge Democrat, and in consideration of the fact that dark tobacco, the kind chiefly grown by us, are selling at prices which these tobacco growers find profitable and impossible, do hereby resolve:

1. That the producer of tobacco should have a voice in fixing its, and a greater extent, in controlling its price.

2. Not to sell at present prices.

3. If we believe that there is an over-production that we will curtail the crop, for the ensuing year or years.

These three resolutions are to be before the farmers of the county through the mediums of the News and the Democrat, and in consideration of the fact that the farmers are called to hold school district meetings at 1 o'clock Saturday, February 27, and that they send delegates to meet at the court-house in Hardinsburg on the last Monday in March at 6 o'clock, at which time the expressed will of the growers will be embodied in more ample resolutions.

File Answer to Suit.

An answer and counter-claim for $500,000 as filed this morning by the Kentucky Heating Company against the Louisville Gas Company in the suit brought some months ago by the latter corporation against the former. The action of the Gas Company was for $250,000 damages, alleged to have been done the plaintiff by the sale of what was claimed to be mixed and manufactured gas for illuminating purposes. This, the Gas Company alleged, was an infringement of its character, which confers upon it the right to sell manufactured gas for illuminating purposes.

The petition of the Gas Company has passed through preliminary stages of pleadings in Judge Miller's court and the Heating Company's answer and counter-claim will bring the question in controversy fairly to issue. The Gas Company claimed in its petition that the Heating Company had sold, mixed and manufactured gas since January 1, 1895, and asked that as accounting be given for the loss of business alleged to have been sustained. In answering these allegations the Heating Company merely makes formal denial of every charge. Tuesday Times.

Rev. Walton Writes About

Mt. Carmel and Ebenezer.

Mt. Carmel, Ky., Jan. 6, 1904.
Dear Sir: When I left Cloverport last summer I promised to write you an article for the paper sometime when the opportunity afforded. This morning seems to be the most opportune time. But if I should put a deal of pessimism into what I say it is not because I am a pessimist, for, on the other hand, I am an optimist in the extreme, it only rules the universe and sooner or later all things will be for the best. But because I have been sick since Dec. 20, 1903, and am just now convalescing, I am now getting able to sit up and write some; but cannot do my church work. I took charge of this work November 1, 1903, and God has wonderfully blessed my work. I received twenty-one into the church in the two months I was able to work before I was compelled to stop.

This is a blue grass country just on the border of the mountains. I can stand at my window facing the North and in the distance see the mountains. Land sells for $40 per acre and produces annually from 40 to 50 bushels of corn to the acre a good crop year. Crops of all kinds were poor last year from two causes. In the first place the spring was very late and people did not get to plant their crops on time, then the summer was very dry and the crops did not mature. The principal products are wheat, corn, oats and tobacco. Stock raising, especially h-rses and cattle, is carried on extensively.

Mt. Carmel, though a small town, is more than a hundred years old. It is situated seven miles from Flemingburg, the county seat of Fleming county. Flemingburg is our nearest railroad station. We have a daily stage and a mail line to Flemingburg, and a daily stage and mail to Mayaville. At present we have no telephones, but as soon as the weather permits a line will be put into operation. All the poles are on the ground and part of the poles set.

There are three churches in town, representing a membership of about 300. M. E. South, Campbellites and Presbyterians each have a good substantial building.

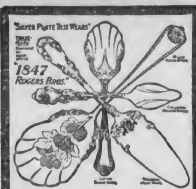

The Presbyterian church was only organized a year ago last October, and in numbers is the smallest of the three. Both of the other churches are old organizations.

The Ebenezer church, at Cottageville, Lewis county, was organized in 1798, making it 105 years old, one of the oldest churches in this part of the country.

I supply the Mt. Carmel and Ebenezer churches on alternate Sundays. Yours truly
Rev. T. F. Walton.

Bradley Registration Bill.

The Bradley Registration Certificate Bill virtually became a law Thursday when the Senate passed the House bill without amendment. The bill requires the registration of voters in all cities and towns from the first to the sixth class inclusive, and requires the officers to issue to each registered voter a certificate of registration, which certificate must be presented to the officers of election at the polls before the vote can be cast.

In Breckenridge county there is one incorporated city of the fifth class, Cloverport, and four incorporated towns of the sixth class, Hardinsburg, Irvington, Stephansport and Glendene.

THE FARMERS' MOVEMENT.

The farmers' movement is a right. If they can effect a strong combination and all pull together, the big farmer and the little farmer as well, they can do it. To accomplish something that will benefit them. They have got to work along the same lines as the tobacco trust. First form a strong combination of the leading tobacco growers, then proceed to satisfy the small grower, the two to five acre man, either by buying his land or giving him a good bonus to go out of the business. When this is accomplished then the combination must select the best business farmer in the combination at a good salary to manage the combination and look after its affairs, and see that a certain amount of acreage is put out every year, so many acres in dark and so many in burley, just enough to keep up a good stiff demand for the tobacco trust. When the supply of the raw material is absolutely under the control of the producer he can dictate terms to the Tobacco Trust or manufacturer, and get his own price. Just as long as the farmer over his head he will be on the hillside with his five to ten acres of tobacco ground, the only source from which he can get immediate supplies for his family, is free to raise tobacco and sell to whom and at a price that satisfies him. This is the small producer that is the factor in the production of tobacco, in fact, he is the man that controls in all the trades. The American Tobacco Co. never moved a peg until they got all the little dealers out of their business. Sentiment don't control in tobacco. Neither does it in farming or in trade. It is money and brains and the knowing how, with back-bone and energy thrown in that wins.

The Russo-Japanese war, after being fought in the newspapers for several months, has at last been practically begun by the opening of hostilities on the part of Japan. Japan has dispatched sixty transports of soldiers to Korea, where a landing will be effected, under the protection of a fleet of torpedo boats. The Japanese fleet has been sent to Port Arthur and a clash with the Russian fleet is imminent, according to the patches received in this country. American ships will be close at hand to see that Uncle Sam's interests are protected.

The United States is now the world's greatest exporter of domestic products. In 1895 she stood at the bottom of the German. Now she stands first, as will be seen by the following report from the Department of Commerce and Labor.

We are not only producing first grade in domestic products, but in many every thing that goes to make a country great. And these exports give us some insight as to why farm products are so bright. Other countries are buying more and more of the farm raises every year and will continue to do it. The farmer should study statistics and keep in touch with the markets. Produce the things that are in demand and bring the best prices.

The great fire that raged in Baltimore from 11 o'clock Sunday morning until Monday evening, was one of the most disastrous conflagrations the world has ever known, and second only in this country to the great Chicago fire in 1871. For twenty-eight hours one hundred engines fought the fire, and now that the flames are checked Baltimore faces a loss of over $100,000,000 and a water famine. Presumably only one person was killed and about fifty injured. The burned district covers 140 acres, the wholesale and retail portion of the city, and 9,500 houses were destroyed. Six thousand business firms were threatened, and 50,000 people thrown out of employment. Regiments of soldiers guard the burned area. Gov. Warfield, of Maryland, has been asked to proclaim a ten days' holiday and a thirty-day extension on all local papers. Restaurants are wiped out and a partial famine threatens. Aid will be given the people of the stricken city by all sister cities, the National government and the Maryland Legislature. Baltimore's loss will be felt by all the commercial world, as it is one of the country's greatest markets.

PICKED UP ON THE ROAD.

Jesse M. Howard has bought a very fine lot of tobacco over at Glendene for the American Tobacco Co. He paid one and two-fifths for the best crops. It is still having but at figures a little lower than the first purchases. Mr. Howard is a fine judge and a good handler of tobacco. He knows a good crop when he sees it and knows its value. He deals honestly and fairly with the farmers, giving them good weight and the top price for their crop. He also buys for the Ohio Valley Tobacco Co. for whom he has been working for ten or twelve years. His long service for this company is an endorsement of his business ability, his honesty, his integrity and his worth as a fine young business man.

Wm. Sipes, of Hancock county, went to West Point last Thursday to see his brother, Wash, who has been sick for some time, and is not expected to recover. "Uncle" Wash Sipes is well known all over Breckenridge, Meade and Hancock counties. In his younger days he ran a livery stable in Cloverport. It was away back in the sixties, when people paid more attention to horses than they do now. Most every man then, especially the farmers, had good horses, and "Uncle" Wash took great pride in his stable. He kept a lot of good horses and rigs. He had one in particular, a roan pony, a beautiful animal, fat as a butterball and gentle as a lamb. This pony was a great favorite with the boys who used to flock around "Uncle" Wash's stable about watering time waiting their turn to ride this pony to water. "Uncle" Wash was mighty kind and good to the little boys, and would let them ride at every opportunity. Many of these boys are grown-up men now and remember "Uncle" Wash's kindness to this day.

Abraham Sago went to Louisville last Thursday. He is 22 years old, born and reared in Breckenridge county, near Cloverport, and this was his first trip to Louisville. He has a grandfather in New Albany, Ind. who is 115 years old, is in good health and strong and vigorous for his years.

Thos. Lyddan was over at Glendene Saturday and bought of Robertson Bros. a pair of the finest 3-year-old mules in the county. He paid $350 for them and says he got a bargain.

Mrs. S. B. Schopp, of Stephensport, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Blitz, Louisville.

The greatest bargains ever offered in furniture. A beautiful line of calico at 5 cents per yard. Take your butter, eggs and all kinds of country produce to Geo. McWhinn, Stephensport, and exchange them for these bargains.

Mr. Geo. Jamison, the timber and tie man who has been confined to his room for over a year with rheumatism, is still an active business man although he never leaves his room. He has two mills sawing for him, and has handled over a million feet of lumber during the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Payne went to Hardinsburg Monday.

As to Loans, Etc.

Real estate investments are, as a rule, the best paying property. The net returns are generally very satisfactory. Of course the ideal real estate investment is the purchase money holdings of which there can be no quibbling as to payment.

First mortgages on real estate, if carefully placed, make a good investment. However, the greatest care should be taken by the man putting his money into mortgages to be sure that his is a first mortgage. He should also have some personal knowledge of the property on which he contemplates placing a lien, and be satisfied also that there are no prior mortgages or mechanic's liens existing. In this event he could not be defeated in the collection of his claim and all accrued interest.

TO MATOES AND TURNIPS.

What a Half Acre of Land Netted at the Mississippi Agricultural College.

The first crop grown was tomatoes. The varieties used were Beauty, Aon, Dwarf Champion and Magnus. The soil was of medium fertility and of a loamy nature. The tomato seed was planted in the garden January 8, in rows five inches apart. When the plants were about four inches tall they were put in two-inch pots, and placed in a half hardy greenhouse until they were put in the field. By this time the plants were about eight inches tall; they were then transplanted (with soil) in five-inch plants in cold frames: the date of this planting was about March 1. Cotton seed balls were kept in readiness as a covering to be placed on the cabbage in the event of a cold snap. Frequent ventilation and all the light possible was given on cold days when the thermometer stood above freezing. On April 10, the date plants were removed to the field, they had from one to two clusters of blooms on them. The soil was prepared in the garden the fall before, in rows four feet apart. Ten loads of stable manure was applied before the soil was prepared. The plants were carried to the field on hand harrows as carefully as possible to prevent breaking the sod, and were placed thirty inches apart in the rows which had been previously opened by their receipt. The beds were then removed by cutting the center with a knife; soil was pulled around each sod with a hoe, afterwards the turning plow was employed, and the planting was finished. Within a few days the plants had been pruned and tied to stakes. A strawberry plant was then planted between each tomato plant. Frequent shallow cultivation was employed during the season. The plants were pruned so as to make two stems. The first tomatoes were gathered for market June 1, and were sold in local towns at from 80 cents to $1.50 per bushel crate. Tomatoes on this half acre netted $200.

After the crop was removed it was found that a large percent of the berry plants had died. The soil was then prepared and all of the missing places between the berry plants were planted with top soil from the garden. Seventy-five dollars worth of turnips were sold in the local markets from this planting. After the turnips were removed all of the missing places were replanted in berry plants and there now a perfect stand.—Yasoo Sentinel.

Reported by Live Stock Market.

Louisville, Feb. 8.—Cattle—Arrivals for today's market were fairly liberal. The offerings, which consisted principally of butcher selections, moved readily, all the tidy butcher steers and heifers being in strong demand, values for the best being 5 to 10c higher. All classes of butcher stock showed improvement, and all the offerings were readily disposed of at full market value. Bulls, canners, fresh cows and springers ruled firm, with all arrivals in active demand. Stockers and feeders of the best selections remain steady; others slow at quotations. Prime heavy shipping steers were in moderate demand. Top market values, while the rough, half-fatted kinds were unchanged. Pens were well cleared and the market closed firm.

Calves.—Cattle veals $5 to $5.50; extra $5.75; others $4.50 to $4.50.

Hogs.—There was a moderate supply on sale today; and the market opened early, with prices generally 10c higher. All arrivals were quickly absorbed at the following prices: Choice hogs, 160 pounds and up, $5.10; 120 to 150 pounds $4.65; pigs $4.35; rough $4 to $4.40. Prospects steady.

Sheep and Lambs.—There was a light supply on sale and all the best fat sheep and butcher lambs were ready sale at strong market prices.

Good Clothes and Good Stationery.
There is an old saying like this: "Judge a man not by his clothes, but by his face." The saying holds good on some occasions, but when a man applies it 365 days in the year he finds himself a loser in the end. So it is with cheap stationery. Cheap clothes and cheap stationery have about the same deadening effect on a man's business. Before you got your good little wifery put on your best duds and everything else you had good when you called on her—simply because you were after the "best" and of course used the best in your possession and power to get the "best." It is the same way with business. If you want the best you must go after it with the best—the best stationery. Like we turn out, for instance. If you don't know about the work we turn out, write us and we will gladly inform you. Thanks to you for reading this—but if you will abide by its meaning it will be mutually profitable.

Heavy Fine in Bird Laws.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8.—If the Senate passes the bill which went through the House today there will be a heavy fine for the sale of any quail, partridge, pheasant, grouse or wild turkey killed in this State. It will not only be unlawful to sell any of these game birds killed in Kentucky but it will also be a violation of the law for any person or corporation to transport the birds to any market. Hotels, restaurants and individuals will have to kill their own birds or else buy birds that have been brought here from other states.

Will Be the Northwest.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—A contract has been let for refitting and redecorating the Trocadero theatre in which 375 persons were lost on December 30, last. It has been uncertain whether the Trocadero would open again as a playhouse, but the letting of the contract for repairs indicates that the theatre will be reopened to the public as a place of amusement. The cost of the repairs will be about $22,000, and the management hopes to reopen the house in the early spring.

It is said the name of the theatre will be changed to the "Northwest."

R. L. Newsom's Column.

N. W. my friends, I advise you not to read the following list if you expect to hold on to your money, as the temptation will be very great to invest it in some of the bargains offered.

What is the use of always renting property when you can buy? I have several pieces of property which have paid for themselves three times.

I shall take pleasure in driving you around and showing you the city property.

MUCH ACREAGE NOW OBTAINED.

Present conditions indicate that the J. T. Polk company's brandy cannery factory in this city will have a big run lasting several months this year. F. D. Whitbeck, the local manager, is experiencing little difficulty in securing contracts for the desired acreage, which is, of course, the first requisite to the successful operation of the cannery.

The farmers in this section are realizing this year more than last that it is profitable to grow canning crops when compared to tobacco and some other crops they have been raising, there being some who will put in as high as ten acres of canning crops this year. A fixed market and a fixed price for their produce is a good thing for the farmers and, indirectly, for the town. A large acreage will mean money for the farmer and also for the 150 or 200 persons who will be employed at the cannery. With last year's experience they will be more adept in their work and, of course, will be paid more than last year. As to the local stockholders in the plant, the main factory at Greenwood, stands good for a similar division of the profits at Stillman, Tobaccoport, and near this city have signed contracts to raise 300 acres of tomatoes for the exclusive use of the J. T. Polk company at 10 cents per bushel. About thirty farmers at Stillman, made contracts with Manager Whitbeck last week to put in from two to ten acres each. About one hundred acres near this city will be put into tomatoes and the remaining division in Tobaccoport and near growers will deliver their tomatoes at the cannery and outside growers at the nearest shipping point, the J. T. Polk company to pay for transportation to their plant. The tomato seed is furnished free to all growers.

Next week Mr. Whitbeck will begin contracting for sweet corn, at $40 per ton, his company wanting 500 acres of this crop.

The canning season for corn will begin the first of July and continue until the first frost. The first tomatoes will be canned about the middle of July, three weeks earlier than last year. Previous to the corn season new machinery will be installed in the cannery and probably an addition built. The cannery had an exceptionally good run last year and is expected to do still better this year.

When You Have a Cold.

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will be installed in the cannery and probably an addition built. The cannery had an exceptionally good run last year and is expected to do still better this year.

In Memory of Dr. Meador.

Dr. J. W. Meador was born Nov. 6, 1838; departed this life Jan. 13, 1904, aged 65 years, two months and seven days. Dr. Meador was much beloved by his many friends, and was admired by all who knew him for his intelligence and ability.

For years he wrote for the county papers and few there were who could write more interestingly. His prose was strong and forceful and that he had the poetical faculty is shown by several of his poems published years ago.

He was an eloquent public speaker and was twice elected to the Republican office of Ohio county to the Kentucky Legislature at a time when the county was atrociously Democratic. He had many Democrats among his personal friends and they always supported him. Dr. Meador never acquired any wealth. His early manhood was a struggle with poverty.

Aching Joints

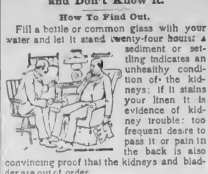

In the fingers, toes, arms, and other parts of the body, are joints that are inflamed and swollen by rheumatism; that acid condition of the blood which affects the muscles also.

Sufferers dread to move, especially after sitting or lying long, and their condition is commonly worse in wet weather.

"It has been a long time since we have been without Hood's Sarsaparilla. My father thinks he could do without it. He has been troubled with rheumatism since he was a boy and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine he can take that will make him feel his place in the world." Miss Ada Dorr, Bismarck, Iowa.

Resolving to become a physician, he had many difficulties to overcome, but in 1869, he graduated in medicine from the University of Louisville.

Then began his life's work of ministering to the afflicted and hundreds today will affirm that he nobly did his duty. Always ready to use his skill for money, he never refused a call if he could possibly make it; and spent his life in constant toil. I do not know how he has been in recent years, but he never ask for what was his duty. His patients could pay what they generally did so, the rest he trusted to pay what they were able. He understood the management of typhoid fever and for years he never lost a case that was intrusted to him from the beginning.

Axions to improve in his chosen profession, he at different times took additional courses at Louisville University and in 1892 he took a course in eye, ear, nose and throat diseases at a Clinic in Chicago. Just a few days before his death, although in very feeble health, he rode several miles to visit a patient. On his way home he became so exhausted that he was compelled to stop at a home by the road before proceeding onward.

His reputation as a physician, in his locality, was second to none, and as a friend he was faithful and true.

Dr. Meador was twice married; the first time to Miss America V. Matthews, who died Oct. 20, 1881. On Nov. 29, 1892, he was married to Miss Mattie Herndon, of Trisler, Ky., who survives him.

On Jan. 17, 1904, in the presence of a large concourse of friends and in a specially constructed tomb, built according to his directions, all that was mortal of Dr. Meador was laid to rest, to await the resurrection morn.

Dr. Meador was a member of the Presbyterian church and also of the Masonic Lodge. The funeral will be held sometime in the future and the remains will have services at the same time, due notice of which will be given.

Better Than Gold.
"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicine I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in the family." Try them. Mr. Dick at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 26, 1904.—Mr. J. D. Babington.—Dear Friend: Please and enclosed $1 for the News, which you will please send to 3205 S. Figueroa street.

I have been in Los Angeles, since January 10. It is one of the loveliest cities I have ever seen. The hotels are overrun with people, wages are very good, real estate people are doing a land office business, and many eight, ten and twelve story buildings are going up, which will make this one of the greatest cities in the West. The climate is fine and like mid-summer in the North. I have been enjoying the fine fruits here, the strawberries being the finest I have ever seen.

I notice in the News you have had quite a boom in Cloverport. I have not received the last four issues of the News. Please send them beginning from January 1.

Yours and oblige,
H. W. Dick.

WAS A BAPTIST FOR 62 YEARS.

Capt. A. S. English, an aged and well-known citizen, died at his home in this city last Thursday morning at 6:40 o'clock of general debility. His health had been failing for some time but he was belated only three days before his death, which was peaceful and without much suffering.

Capt. English was born on January 3, 1822, in Hardin county, near Elizabethtown. His earlier life was spent in Hardin county, after which he came to Webster, in Breckenridge county, where he owned a large farm for many years. He was twice married and his children were born near Webster. His youngest wife was Miss Martha Chick of Bewleyville. In 1840 he married a Miss Williams, of Tennessee, who survives. About fourteen years ago Capt. English came to this city with his family.

He served during the Civil War in General Porter's Confederate army. He had command of a company in the Third Kentucky Regiment and saw active service throughout the contest.

Capt. English was a member of the Baptist church for sixty-two years and lived a life consistent with his faith. The Western Recorder stated last year that he was the oldest living Baptist in the State.

A widow and the following children survive: Mrs. Ella LaNeave, of Franklin, Tenn.; Edward, of the Philippine Islands; Smith, of Louisiana; and Frank, of this city. Rev. H. S. English, of Stephensport, is a nephew.

The funeral was held from the Baptist church Friday afternoon, the pastor, Rev. S. O. Christman, officiating. The interment was in the city cemetery.

Comes Out For Senate.

Elizabethtown, Feb. 4.—Congressman David H. Smith, of the Fourth district, has just made the formal announcement of his candidacy for the toga of Senator J. C. S. Blackburn, and is already active in his campaign. Gov. Beckham, of this district, who, it was announced, would be a candidate, having declared he would not be in the race. The chances of Representative Smith have thereby been materially advanced, so he thinks. Congressman Smith has this to say: "I am a candidate for United States Senator, and my friends in Kentucky are aware of it, although I have as yet made no formal announcement of it. There is really no need of it, for the election does not take place until next year, but I will be in the race at the beginning and also at the finish. I consider my prospects of this time very encouraging, and Senator Blackburn will find me no easy opponent."

Conditions of Sending Estimates in This Port Receipts Contest.

Subject to the usual conditions, as stated regularly in The Constitution each week, the contest is now on. Attention is called to the following summary of conditions:

1. Send $100 for The Weekly Constitution one year and win it ONE ESTIMATE in the contest.
2. Send 50 cents for The Sunny South one year and win it ONE ESTIMATE in the contest.
3. Send $125 for The Weekly Constitution and Sunny South both one year, and send TWO ESTIMATES in the contest—that is, one estimate for The Constitution and another for The Sunny South.
4. Send 50 cents for ONE ESTIMATE alone in the contest IF YOU DO NOT WANT A SUBSCRIPTION. Such a remittance merely pays for the privilege of sending the estimate. If you wish to make a number of estimates on this basis, you may send THREE ESTIMATES FOR EVERY $1.00 forwarded at the same time estimates are sent. If as many as ten estimates are received at the same time without subscriptions, the sender may forward them with only $3.00—this splendid discount being offered for only ten estimates in one order. A postal card receipt will be sent for ALL ESTIMATES RECEIVED WITHOUT SUBSCRIPTIONS. WHEN YOUR SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE ORDERED, THE ARRIVAL OF THE PAPER ITSELF IS AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT THAT YOUR ESTIMATE HAS BEEN RECEIVED AND IS CAREFULLY RECORDED.
5. The money and the subscription and the estimate must come in the same envelope every time. The estimate, the money and the subscription go together. THIS RULE IS POSITIVE.
